

Public Open House

Tuesday,
August 19, 2008
Noon-8:00pm

Tours of the trials will be available throughout the day

What to see

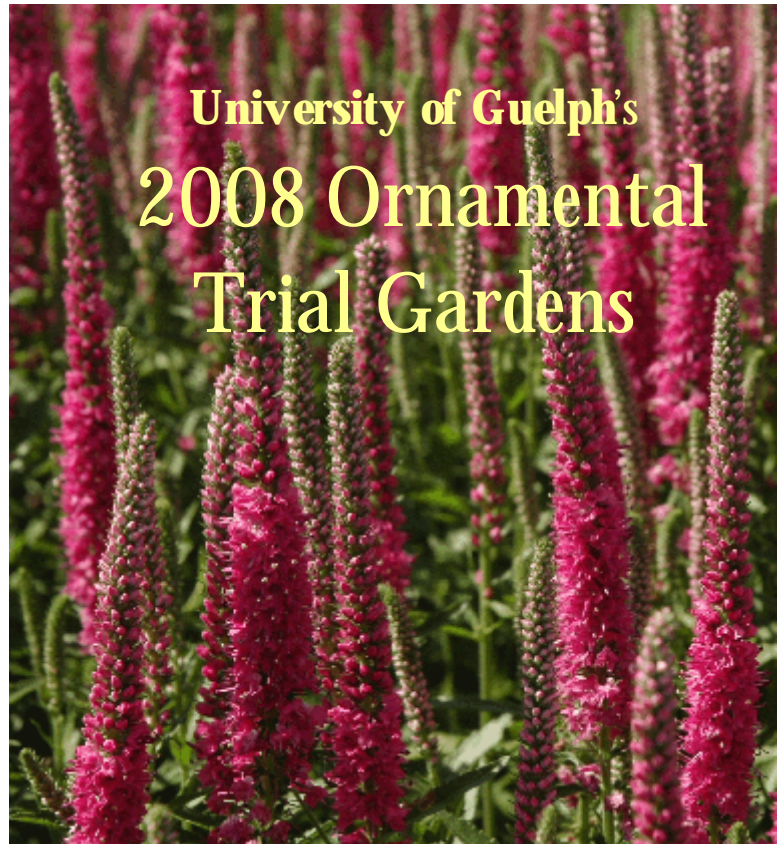

- All America Selections Flower and Bedding Plant Trial
- over 500 different ornamentals for containers and ground beds - vote on your favourites !
- Blooms of Bressingham perennial trial
- Vanhof and Blokker perennial trial
- lily perennialization trial
- boulevard planting trial
- field-grown cutflower trial
- ornamental grass garden

Get answers all day to:

- pest control problems from Guelph's new Healthy Landscape Technician
- gardening questions from the Guelph/Wellington Master Gardeners

Where: Guelph Turfgrass Institute,
328 Victoria Rd. S. (at College Ave.)
(Free admission and parking)

Cutflower Workshop (3-4:30 pm)

Connie Dam-Byl will once again lead a flower arranging workshop using flowers from the garden.

A registration fee of $10.00 will be charged to cover the cost of the flowers you will take home with you. There are only 20 workshop spaces available so register early. (See below for registration contact information)

Free Speaker Program

1-2:00pm - The Future of Pest Control
in Guelph's Gardens

6-7:00pm - Boulevards and Bylaws

Trial Garden Information

For workshop registration or more information please contact Rodger Tschanz at (519) 824-4120 ext. 52788 or by email at:

rtschanz@uoguelph.ca

web site: www.plant.uoguelph.ca/trialgarden