

TREE FRUIT PHYSIOLOGY - SUMMER RESEARCH ASSISTANT

- Job Title: Horticultural Summer Research Assistant – Tree Fruit
- Period: April 25 – Sept 2, 2022
- No. of Positions: 2
- Education: Presently enrolled in a College or University degree in a BSc(Agr) or BSc. Preference will be given to those with those studying horticulture and who have experience in horticultural and/or agriculture.
- Hours: 37.5 hrs/wk
- Rate: Commensurate with education and experience.
- Web: www.plant.uoguelph.ca/treefruit/

The Department of Plant Agriculture, Simcoe Campus is now accepting applications for a research assistant to conduct research-related tasks in the tree fruit physiology research programme based at its research facility in Simcoe. This research program involves projects in tree canopy management, training systems, rootstock, irrigation, new cultivar evaluation and methods to improve fruit quality and to control tree growth and cropping.

The successful candidate will be responsible for maintaining plots, collecting and analyzing data, and taking growth and yield measurements. Computer spreadsheet and word processing skills are an asset.

If you have questions or require further information, please contact: Dr. John Cline. Application deadline Feb 21, 2022 (5 pm). Please email a cover letter and resume to Prof. John Cline, University of Guelph, Department of Plant Agriculture, Simcoe, Ontario N3Y 4N5 Tel: (519) 426-7127 Email: jcline@uoguelph.ca. Only candidate(s) selected for an interview will be contacted. This position is also posted to select students on the University of Guelph Career Services website <https://experienceguelph.ca/>.

University of Guelph, Department of Plant Agriculture, Simcoe, Ontario N3Y 4N5 [Tel: (519) 426-7127 ext 331 Fax: (519) 426-1225 Email: jcline@uoguelph.ca].